Dear Greg,

Just a short note to say thank you again for your presentation at our recent squash centre and club marketing /promotion workshop.

The session was enlightening, invigorating and logical. The quality of the information was excellent with a simple explanation of the key processes necessary to plan for business success. I know a few of the stories resonated with the audience as demonstrated by the resulting motivation to go forward. Definitely a must for all small business owners ... before they reach the plateau stage!

Kind regards,

Fiona Young
